The Next Level In University Admission

Online Admission Process

Expedien is a pioneer in implementation of Online Admission Management System. We are the most trusted solution provider for Higher Education e-Governance Solutions including Online Admission. Universities of high repute are efficiently managing their Admission Process on our application. IUMS's (Integrated University Management System) Online Admission Management System on SaaS Model enables Higher Education Institutions to set eligibility criteria and rules for admission, define admission route (through entrance exam or merit), screen applicants, shortlist students, generate cut-off lists and register students for admission.

Counseling services are also available to help students select the desired course/institution.

On the day of admission, students can pay their fees, get their photos clicked, get their ID cards, log-in password for the Student Portal and complete all other formalities of enrolment from a single window.
